

Mattie Miracle
CANCER FOUNDATION

Spreading Hope Through Psychosocial SupportTM

This program provides grants up to $1,000 to support a fun family activity, trip, or a wish list item for a child with cancer.

The M&M (Margy & Mattie) Wishes program is in memory of our board member, Margy Jost.

Mattie Miracle has granted over $70K
In wishes to children
and their families.

Let's introduce you to some of our recipients...

Ashton

Medulloblastoma, 7 years old

Ashton's wish

Makeup vanity

Gift cards

iPhone

Christmas tree

"We will always remember being able to choose our new tree together. Every year when we get it out to celebrate our favorite holiday, we will know that the reason we were able to have such a beautiful tree is because of the generosity of Mattie Miracle." - Ashton's Mother

Sebastian's wish

Trip to Branson, MO
to experience:

Christmas festivities
at
Silver Dollar City

The Polar Express Train

“With Christmas approaching and expenses being tight ... This trip would provide him with joy, comfort, and a much-needed break during his ongoing treatment.” - Sebastian's Grandmother

Faith

Acute Myeloid Leukemia, 17 years old

Faith's wish

Online
shopping spree

“Faith had to spend her birthday in the hospital. She loves to shop. Since she cannot go to the mall right now, she would really love an online shopping spree.” - Faith's Child Life Specialist

Dewayne's wish

WWE video game

Notre Dame sweatshirt

Giant teddy bear

“Dewayne has extensive stays in the hospital, and he misses his family a lot.

He and his younger brother enjoy playing video games. This wish allows Dewayne and his brother to play together and stay connected whether he's at home or in the hospital.”

- Dewayne's Child Life Specialist

Jenna

B-Cell Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia, 6 years old

Jenna's wish

Family trip to Dollywood

“We are a busy family of seven and this diagnosis stopped us completely in our tracks. Jenna is excited for the family to go to Dollywood, see the mountains, and do a little exploring together. Since we are a large family on one income, we are prayerfully asking for some help to get us there.” - Jenna's Mother

Forrest's wish

iPad

Apple Cash:
Apps &
Games

“Forrest is unable to go back to 2nd grade and likely will not start 3rd grade either. I’d love to purchase an iPad and apps for learning, keeping connected with friends, reading/listening to books, watching a movie, being creative, and providing distractions during appointments/travel.” - Family Caregiver

Lauren

Osteosarcoma, 14 years old

Lauren's wish

Professional
photography session
with her family

“Lauren has four siblings, and her intensive treatment and setbacks prevented her from spending much time with them. Lauren requested a family photo shoot to capture memories of their trip to Europe.”

- Lauren's Child Life Specialist

Kaleb

B-Cell Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia, 5 years old

Kaleb's wish

Gift cards:

Target, Jordan Shoes,
Amazon, Olive Garden

Pajamas

Dinosaur toys

“God bless you always and your organization.”

- Kaleb's Father

Abilene

Diffuse Anaplastic Wilms Tumor, 8 years old

Abilene's wish

Family trip to the beach

Mini golf

“Abilene would like to go to the beach. Because of her intense chemo regimen, she can't be around crowds. Abilene would enjoy relaxing in the sand, body surfing, and swimming in a pool.

She also loves playing putt-putt.”

- Abilene's Mother

Marco's wish

Meta Quest 3

Meta store gift cards

“Marco’s recent MRI scans showed new tumor growth despite his ongoing chemotherapy treatment. He was hesitant to ask but finally requested a virtual reality headset for himself and one for his sibling. This and the gift cards would absolutely make his day and the limited ones to come.” - Marco’s Nurse

Charlie

B-Cell Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia, 4 years old

Charlie's wish

Family trip to
Great Wolf Lodge

“We had to cancel our family’s spring break trip as Charlie struggled with an infection and his maintenance chemotherapy. Because everyone was so disappointed, we’d like to surprise them with a local overnight trip to lift their spirits and have some fun.” - Charlie’s Mother

Julian's wish

Trip to Boston to see the Patriots
play

“Julian has been a Patriots fan since elementary school. Gifting him HIS LITERAL DREAM goes beyond charity. I didn’t think a blessing like this was possible because he’s too old for other programs. He said, ‘OMG I’M GOING TO GILLETTE STADIUM!!!’ Then he and his brothers all screamed for joy!” - Julian’s Mother

Cole

B-Cell Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia, 5 years old

Cole's wish

Trip to the beach
with family

“Cole’s diagnosis has been extremely difficult on our family. I stopped working when he got sick, and we are all in therapy now. I would like a wish for Cole because he deserves the world. He and his brother have been through more than most kids will ever experience.”

- Cole’s Mother

Shawn's wish

Virtual reality
headset

“Shawn misses school and his friends. His two younger siblings have been supportive, but are having trouble understanding why he is getting all the attention. He is very brave and has handled his new diagnosis with strength.”

- Child Life Specialist

Natalya

Diffuse Astrocytoma, 18 years old

Natalya's wish

Family trip to DC
to tour the sites
and see a
Broadway musical

“The MRIs are extremely hard for her. She’s got this dark cloud over her that’s so hard to get rid of. She needs something to show her that life is still amazing and to bring the light back to her eyes! Please don’t ever stop doing wishes!”

- Natalya's Mother

Theo

B-Cell Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia, 7 years old

Theo's wish

Train trip to Seattle to watch the Sea Mariners play

“Theo loves baseball and trains. Now that he is in the maintenance portion of his treatment, he is able to live a more normal life and travel with his family. He and his four younger siblings are thrilled to take this adventure!”

- Theo's Mother
